

University of Regina International Student of Distinction Scholarship Guiding

1. Overview of the Special Scholarship

Each year, one graduate from Kobe Ryukoku High School, a special partner school, will be awarded this special scholarship.

The scholarship provides academically outstanding international students with 12 months of on-campus housing (single room with a private bathroom) and meal costs, equivalent to CAD 20,000 per year.

Scholarships for the second year and beyond will be determined based on academic performance from the previous year.

(If the applicant does not meet the required English proficiency level, the scholarship will begin once the requirement is met.)

2. Eligibility Requirements

- For the first-year scholarship, the applicant must have an overall GPA of 4.0 or higher (on a 5-point scale) in all subjects during their third year of high school. (Higher GPA is preferred.)
 - Scholarships for the second year and beyond will be determined based on the student's university grades from the previous year.
 - Applicants must enroll in a four-year bachelor's degree program. (Early withdrawal is not allowed.)
 - Once awarded, the scholarship cannot be declined.
